

NEWS ALERT

- US team to push for easy investment laws

A team from Washington will visit New Delhi next week to discuss liberalization of investment laws that had taken a back seat due to elections in both countries.

- Another shuffle of AI brass— Portfolios of 11 officers at Executive level rejigged

Following a meeting with the prime minister Manmohan Singh in

AIR-INDIA

June-end, the airline was advised to undertake organizational as well as financial restructuring

- Companies routing funds to evade taxes face taxing times

The government is mulling new laws to bring into the tax net domestic companies which deliberately route their overseas investments through tax havens to avoid paying taxes at home

Something interesting!!!

EDUCATION IS BIGGEST ADVERTISER IN PRINT

In Jan-May this year, the sector increased its spending on print by 9% to stay on top with 19% of the pie

Services came in second, having brought in 11% of the total advertising income of the print media. Banking and finance was third with 9%.

— according to Alex India, a division of TAM Media Research