Commencement of PGDM programme Batch 2017-19

Dear Student,

I congratulate you on your admission to JIMS, Rohini and welcome you to XXVth Batch of the Post Graduate Diploma in Management 2017-19.

We expect from you a high degree of discipline, dedication and determination, which in long run would immensely help in your pursuit for success. You must be capable to launch new ventures and become an entrepreneur or be an innovator and leader in the organization where you work, after completion of this two year programme. In dynamic circumstances your ability to lead must however remain constant.

The PGDM course at JIMS is focused on imparting the knowledge and skills required to survive and succeed in today's competitive environment. The entire programme will be covered through lectures, case studies, role plays, class presentations, simulation games, assignments and interaction with industry. Apart from this, you will be provided extensive inputs in soft skills and communication.

We, at JIMS, are very particular about regularity, punctuality and active participation in all co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.

The programme will commence on Monday, 3th July 2017. You are required to report at 9.00 a.m. for registration and orientation programme. Classes will start immediately thereafter.

Parents are welcome to attend Orientation programme.

You are advised to utilize interim period in preparing yourself for the programme.

Best Wishes,

Dr. Sumesh Raizada

Dean (PGDM programme),
Jagan Institute of Management Studies (JIMS)
